STUNNING VIEWS FROM OLIVERS HILL ACROSS PORT PHILLIP BAY

With glorious views over Port Phillip Bay, this Olivers Hill house is set in an established bush garden with trees framing the sea beyond.

Available for the first time this 1942 residence, designed by the late Sir Osborn McCutcheon, is one of the last remaining original beach houses along this coast that was once a popular destination for wealthy Melburnians, with favourable north-westerly facing water views and plenty of space to extend this charming house.

Long treasured within the one family as a weekender, the 3
